Quarter. Thanks you if anyone, & do it - She has a decided dislike of the pho. with the lat. - thinks the face is unnaturally puffed out by the strings. I trust you will not attempt the work again. It is very hard to work in that way. & if you draw you out all possible facilities to save yourself from over-fatigue - Adm. you became very nervous & a little excitable over the other - more than you were aware I am glad Mr. Mother has got home - do not let her go to any more fairs. They will kill her & did she answer the wily secretaries?
& was she able to endure Old Abe?
Mrs. A. A. the story goes doesn't fall into the fashion set by the other well-lighted dames - but chooses ordinarily to her wraps & jewelry. but why will one quote such lines as the Grounds?

We have another vol.
of Spencer's usage from the Club.
After we take it - & climb the mt. above the interval & sit in circle & read or dream or lazily watch the river & the shadows.

This afternoon we go to ride - Come again soon - To the Shanty just before sunset - Both well and in spirit - But tomorrow I go to Boston - I shall be there probably a good part of the week - but can you come when I'm away?

Wrote that first morning when Mr. Jackson - but now you were wrong -
